

December is Universal Human Rights Month

A time to reflect on the fundamental freedoms to which all human beings are entitled, regardless of race, color, religion, sex, birth or other status.