

LOVE YOUR NEIGHBOR.
WASH YOUR HANDS.

Washing your hands is one of the best practices out there for reducing the spread of colds, flu and infections. When you visit someone in the hospital or visit people who are sick or elderly in their homes, wash your hands or use hand sanitizer before greeting them.

Keep each other healthy and thriving!

A health tip for you from
AdvocateAuroraHealth